

The following exterior features of the 1009 North 8th Street are protected by City Ordinance No. 8856, Approved November 16 1999:

1. pale yellow brick construction
 2. rough cut stone foundation with smooth top course
 3. smooth stone water table
 4. stone belt courses
 5. pointed arch windows
 6. arch windows
 7. metal gutters and decorative downspouts
 8. buttress arch columns
-
9. three large arched stained glass windows
 10. sets of three arched stained glass windows on the sides, center with rose window top
 11. main east entry - double doors, brick arch, crenellated detailing, columns, stone base, stained glass
 12. side entries - single door, brick arches, crenellated detailing, columns, stone crosses, stained glass
 13. basement windows
 14. bell tower - southeast corner
 15. Celtic gold cross
 16. Baptistry - northeast corner
 17. stone detailing around first story windows on east side
 18. brick detailing around windows on west side
 19. engaged brick columns
 20. finials