D QUINCY ick Wellman was in junior high school when he first had a chance to walk through the Sarah A. Baker house at 327 S. 12th. From the first time he saw the place, he knew he wanted to eventually live there.

Wellman kept in contact with the owners of the house, telling them that if they ever wanted to move out that he'd be more than happy to buy the place. In 2008
