

10 Gustav and Mary Poetsch House 317 College Street

This Queen Anne house, built in 1894, dominates a terraced hill. A tower room with an engaged turret roof is built into the main body of the second story.

Architectural details include six original stained glass windows, a double-tiered west gable with brackets, and a half-round window. The beautiful view of Quincy and the Mississippi River gives this house added significance.