

1801 Maine

2-story Greek Revival

Side-facing gable roof

2-story ^{entry} porch supported by Ionic columns with fluted shafts; balustrade lines perimeter of porch roof fluted Ionic pilasters mirrored on exterior wall and are located at corners

The cornice lines are emphasized by a wide band of trim decorated with dentils and simple brackets

The entrance framed by pilasters also decorated by entablature ~~de~~ with dentils & brackets

3 gabled dormers centered on facade, 1 matching dormer on the North elevation — gable emphasized by broken pediment; window was a round arch w/ Gothic tracery forms of glass; keystone centered on arch of window.