

Home #2

Year Built: 1872
Name of House: The R.K. Turner Manse
Style: Gothic Revival
Architect: Unknown
Current Owner: Cheryl Grant

OF NOTE

The Quincy Preserves Tour Committee wishes to thank all of the owners who have so graciously opened their homes/buildings for the 1998 tour. Since you are their guests, we ask you to observe the following:

1. Sponsors and property owners are not responsible for lost articles or accidents during the tour.
2. No smoking, food or beverages while on the property or within the tour structure.
3. You may be asked to remove your shoes or wear booties in some of the homes.
4. No photographs or videos may be taken inside the homes.

Proceeds raised from the house tour are used to promote preservation education and projects in the Quincy community.

Quincy Preserves is dedicated to the community and was formed in the 1970s as an outgrowth of the Quincy Society of Fine Arts. All are welcome to join. The organization promotes the preservation of Quincy's outstanding architectural and historical heritage. Quincy Preserves' tours provide an opportunity to witness the integrity and style of architecture in many beautiful structures throughout the city. For it is "behind these closed doors" that we see the legacies of yesterday cherished today.

Enjoy the Tour!
1998 Tour Committee

Chair Sherri Turner
Co-chairs Joyce Staff, Linda Inghram, Ruth Hultz, Jerry Holzgrafe, Tanya Hilliard, Jane Frederick, Jane Gardner, Rick Dulaney, Monica Begley, and Geni Batchelor
Board President George Nelson