

228 S. 18th

This stately house was designed by Harvey Chatten and built in 1892-95. It is a combination of shingle and Romanesque styles with shingles on the upper story and stone below. A striking feature is the arched window in the dining room with an outstanding art nouveau grape cluster and lead stained-glass theme.