

613 Broadway

This Second Empire and Italianate styles house was empty for decades and finally restored by William Klingner for use as executive and engineering offices of Klingner and Associates. The 10-room house was constructed in the 1870s for Robert W. Gardner, founder of Gardner-Denver Co.