

HERALD-WHIG LIVING

□ Page 1C
Sunday, Feb. 1, 2004

A gem of a house

Woods like butternut were grown here, and often used in homes such as this one at 2903 Maine Street

ppenbach

well-known Quincy
cognizes a gem when he shutters, and installed a new front window," said Voth. His late wife disliked the predominantly dark walls and carpeting, replacing them with eggshell and other room-brightening neutrals.

