

- * wooden shingles and siding
- * decorated vergeboards
- * porch with square columns and balustrade
- * bay window on porch (east side)
- * parlor window with stained glass transom window (east side)
- * decorative chimney, including stained glass window, brickwork, etc.
- * second story northeast corner porch with decorative circles
- * four over four pane window sashes
- * double hung one over one windows
- * basement windows and molding

Why do you think this property merits designation? Check appropriate item(s):

Architecture    Persons    Event(s)    Prominent Landmark Historical    Unusual Use    Other _____

Is owner aware of this application?    Yes    No

Does owner consent to this designation?    Yes    No    Don't know

Legal Description:

Currently

Nevin's Survey
 South 50.5 feet of South 130.5 feet
 of East 124 feet of lots 42 and 43

Historically

Nevin's Survey
 East 13 feet of lot 43
 and all of lot 42

Bibliography:

"210 S. 18th Street," Residence Files. Gardner Museum of Architecture and Design.

Collins, William and Cicero Perry. "Joel Rice," Past and Present of Quincy and Adams County.

Landrum, Carl. "Pork Packers Prospered," Quincy Herald-Whig. April 9, 1967.

Lenz, Jim. "Solid and Inviting," Quincy Herald-Whig.

"Mrs. Johanna Wallace," Quincy Daily Herald. January 2, 1912.

"Mrs. Johanna R. Wallace," Woodland Cemetery records, p 159.

Quincy City Directories. 1870-1998. Historical Society of Quincy and Adams County.

Recorder of Deeds. Adams County Courthouse.