

BENEATH THE HOLLY.

Marriage of E. D. Richardson and Miss Anne Austin.

A BRILLIANT RECEPTION.

An Elegant Affair in Society Last Evening—
The Ceremony Witnessed by Only the Relatives and a Few Friends—A Gay
Throng at the Reception—Beautiful Decorations.

A wedding which has been looked forward to with much interest took place at 8 o'clock last evening at the residence of the bride's parents, 1422 Maine street, the marriage of Mr. Emmett D. Richardson and Miss Anne L. Austin. The ceremony was a quiet affair and was witnessed only by the relatives and a few of their more intimate friends.

The spacious parlors were beautifully decorated with holly, chrysanthemums and pink roses, holly predominating. As the bridal party descended the stairs the soft strains of Lohengrin's wedding march floated out from the recess where Olker's orchestra was stationed. Passing through to the rear parlor the bridal couple paused under an arch of holly, and there Dean Moore, of the Cathedral of St. John, performed the solemn marriage ceremony of the Episcopal church. One ring was used. The bride's dress was of white striped satin, cut en train, with a border of lace, with pearl trimmings. The ornaments were pearls. She carried a bunch of holly, and her veil was caught up with a spray of the same flower.

A wedding reception was held from 8:30 to 10 o'clock which was largely attended. It was a brilliant assemblage which thronged the parlors, and many of the costumes of the ladies were magnificent. All of the appointments were in the most perfect keeping. Exquisite refreshments were served. The presents were numerous and elegant, but they were not displayed. Among those present from abroad were Miss Huntington, of New York; Miss Dalton, of Bloomington; Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Dwight, of Peoria; the Misses Templin, of Nevada, Mo., and Mrs. Steve Ferris, of Carthage.

The bride and groom are most favorably known in Quincy social circles, and the best wishes of a wide circle of friends are showered upon them. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Austin, and a young lady whose many graces of character have made her a general favorite in society. The groom holds a responsible position with the Richardson Lubricating company, representing that establishment on the road, and is a man of sterling integrity and business ability.

Mr. and Mrs. Richardson departed on the "El" for Chicago, and on their return from their wedding tour will reside at the Newcomb.

the tax books and is ready to receive both real and personal taxes. The following persons have already paid:

Willis Haselwood.....	$120 35
Lycurgus Mitchell.....	1 87
W. L. Vandewater.....	120 25
J. J. Flynn.....	255 09
Rebecca Laughlin.....	22 32
Ellen Trulock.....	21 70
Edward Trulock.....	18 23
Gustav Klarner.....	10 41
William Bertram.....	14 26

Personal.

Mr. P. W. Sapp, of Fall Creek, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. Ollie Groff, of Liberty, was in Quincy yesterday.

Mr. John W. Bowman, of Fairweather, was in the city yesterday.

Deputy Sheriff Schaefer has returned from a brief trip to Springfield.

Miss Anna Golden is very ill at her aunt's residence, 713 Broadway.

Mr. George Callahan, of Fairweather, was a visitor in Quincy yesterday.

Mr. William Enlow, of Burton, was in the city yesterday on business.

Mr. Ernst Weber, employed by Mr. Louis Ebert, the butcher, is seriously ill.

Mrs. Thomas McVey, of Fairweather, was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

The many friends of Dr. I. T. Wilson will be glad to learn that he is again able to be out.

Mrs. T. M. Brown, of Kirksville, Mo., who has been ill here ever since the death of her mother, was able to return to her home yesterday.

Myrtle Randolph will arrive Saturday from Howard Sane college to spend the holidays with her aunt, Mrs. E. C. Hall, at 713 Broadway.

Mrs. Ed. Jolidan, of Elvaston, Ill., is visiting during the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Erhard, 924 North Sixth street.

Dr. J. L. Bevans and wife left for Decatur, Ill., yesterday afternoon, being called to that place by the sudden death of Mrs. Bevans' mother.

Miss Myrtle Randolph will spend her holidays with her aunt, Mrs. E. C. Hall, 713 Broadway. She will arrive Saturday from Howard Payne college.

Henry Banks of Mt. Sterling, is again on duty as brakeman on the Wabash passenger train. He has had a long, hard siege of sickness—grip followed by pneumonia.

Mr. George Weisenberg, bookkeeper at the Ertel hay press works, has gone to St. Louis to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents and to visit his grandmother, who is very sick. It is also reported that he will probably bring home with him a young lady from the Future Great.

Manager Frankenstein and the members of his orchestra arrived in the city yesterday and are stopping at the Tremont. All of them are nice gentlemen, and we predict that the orchestra will be popular here. Mr. Frankenstein came from the north, and states that his orchestra will play in Waukesha, Wis., during the summer season.

Modern Woodmen.

At the meeting of Quincy camp, No. 2040, M. W. of A., Tuesday evening the following officers were elected:

V. C.—Elmer C. Peter.
W. A.—J. C. Ivins.
B.—J. E. Balthrope.
C. T. R. Deane.

Jan. 1, 1894, the Q., O. & K. O. railway will sell tickets to all stations at one and one-third fare for the round trip, good returning up to and including Jan. 3, 1894.

Brevities.

Nelkes' for holiday goods!

J. Batschy, architect, Fifth and Maine

Dolls one-half price, Martin's.

Pianos for rent, Lettons, 218 N. Fifth

Cloaks, any price, Martin's.

Hot lunch at Bachrach's morning and evening.

A great deal of sickness prevails in this city at present.

Free! Box of fine candy with every $1 worth or over bought at Nelkes'!

Mr. Gus Schlueter and Miss Mary Gartner were married last evening.

Holiday goods one-half price, Martin's.

In the absence of Coroner Ryan, Justice McDonnell will act as coroner.

$2 table covers, 98c; $3 covers for $1.50, Martin's.

Gem Furniture Polish, for all kinds of wood work, at Risto & Fick's.

Free! Box of fine candy with every $1 worth or over bought at Nelkes'!

Call and get a bottle of Pearls Polish, for all kinds of metal, at Risto & Fick's.

Don't forget that the ladies of the Congregational church will give their New England dinner to-night.

Country churches in the vicinity of Quincy have sent Police Matron Dix a wagon load of clothing for distribution among the poor.

Mr. August Pfueger, a young farmer who lived five miles southeast of the city, died at his home on Tuesday night of blood poison.

James Harrison broke through the ice at the bay bridge and went in up to his neck. He was rescued by "Plunk," the colored man.

Manager Strasilipka, of the Empire theater, announces that the price of admission to the gallery has been reduced to 50 cents.

Exquisite selection of fine handkerchief extracts in cut glass bottles. The largest line every shown in this city, at Montgomery & Parker's.

The funeral of the late B. Widemaier will take place this afternoon, at 2 o'clock, from the residence of the family, 316 Hampshire street.

Mrs. Edward Venghaus, aged 64 years, died at her home, 621 Monroe street on Tuesday afternoon of cancer. She leaves a husband and seven children.

Dawson coal, best value for your money. Never sold under an assumed name. Mined and sold exclusively by Wabash Coal company, 406 Maine street.

Do not be deceived by misleading names. Dawson coal is Wabash company's coal. Mined and sold by them exclusively. Buy from producers, 406 Maine street.

The Empire theater will be perfumed for the inaugural entertainment this evening with "Empire Lily," a new and exquisitely delicate perfume, furnished by J. O. Christie.

A pair of spectacles in a case were lost on North Fourth street, between the Seaton hotel and Hampshire street. The finder is requested to leave them at the office of Police Magistrate McDonnell.

The secretary of state has granted a license of incorporation to the Quincy for furniture, the holidays, at P. H.

Large and desirable pictures suitable for

New and elegant party footwear, trade.

Holiday Rates

On December and January 1, 1894, road will sell tickets within a distance, and one-third fare good returning up

The best place goods is at the Ne

Twenty-third and caudles. Call and factory can produce finest hand made Morgan's.

Handsome party assortment, new and

The finest line ever in Quincy at Fine etchings, vases, and art novelties. Call and factory can produce finest hand made Morgan's.

Book cases, set library furniture, P. H.

Ladies' fine shoes and widths at

The finest goods Pharmacy.

Pictures for the Bros.

Gold and Silver. St. Louis, Dec. 1. Republic from E. A rich vein of gold one-half ounces at the ton was discovered, near here, and incorporated to find traces of tin and z Zella a London, Dec. 20. that Mrs. Zella Southampton on to-day. She was man traveling u Harris.

THE DE

Mrs. Marie Nevins exquisite taste in al

Mrs. Mary L. Spr in the probate office 30 years.

Fifty thousand dollars marriage dower of the Vanderbilt families Mrs. Bontzon of