

Inside the first St. Francis Church which was on Vine Between 18th and 20th Street.

The back altar today came from the first church which was on Vine St. which is called College St. today. It was located where the University Chapel is today only in the year 1860 until 1886 when it was built here on 17th College.

Each of the seats or pews in the Priests's Choir has a carved saying. Handcarving was done by several of the brothers and priests. Our old confessionals were also hand-carved ... we no longer use them.

This shows the door lifted up into the wall ... note the tile flooring in the sanctuary. Today this area is carpeted,
