

1824 Maine

2½ story, brick

hip roof with flared corners

Octagonal tower at Northeast corner of house with spired roof

1-story porch wraps around tower and continues across facade & turns west corner to Porte Cochère

- double Doric columns support porch and Porte Cochère

2 dormers on North elevation ^(1 on west elevation) are visually connected to windows below by a break in the roofline; panel of decorative wood between windows; leaded glass windows

stone foundations

brick at corners of tower interlace decorative downspouts

2 tall brick chimneys