

HERALD-WHIG LIVING G

□ Page 1C
Sunday, Sept. 12, 2004

H-W Photos/Steve Bohnstedt

Above, a northwest landscape mural painted in 1941 and signed by the artist, C.H. Buxman, surrounds the entire dining room of the Staerker home.

At right, the galley kitchen with clay tile countertops is one of the more interesting unique features of the home and a favorite place for George Staerker to ply his culinary talents.

Couple brings the outdoors inside