

Jonet
(first draft)

Friends of the Dr. Richard Eells House — an underground railroad site.

~~PRESERVATION PARTNERS (INC.)~~

A not-for-profit corporation, formed to preserve, restore and re-use the Dr. Richard EELLS House, 417 Jersey Street, Quincy, Illinois, as a center for research, education and public presentations, reviewing the events of Dr. Eells' life, involving the abolitionist movement, early Quincy medical history, regional negro history, state and national legal events, the early growth of political parties, and also, important aspects of pre-Civil War Quincy area history, including, but not limited to, the development of steamboats and early railroads, ethnic migration patterns, manufacturing, mercantile and cultural enterprises, Quincy area leaders in various fields, as well as lesser known men, women and events.